SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LITTLE ATHLETICS ASSOCIATION

LASA Privacy Collection Notice

Little Athletics SA has adopted the Australian Athletics Privacy Policy as the overarching privacy policy for athletics.

Little Athletics SA collects, uses and discloses personal information to administer Little Athletics programs, memberships, competitions, events, communications, education, child safety, insurance, integrity matters and related activities.

This may include information about athletes, parents, guardians, volunteers, coaches, officials, committee members, staff and other people involved in Little Athletics.

Personal information may be collected directly by Little Athletics SA, through Clubs, registration and competition systems, event entries, forms, surveys, incident reports, complaints, emails, websites, social media or other communication channels.

Personal information may be shared, where appropriate, with Australian Athletics, Little Athletics Clubs, competition and event providers, insurers, government agencies, Sport Integrity Australia, service providers and other organisations involved in delivering or regulating athletics.

Little Athletics SA may also collect sensitive information where reasonably necessary, including health, medical, disability, injury or child safety information. This information is used to support safe participation, inclusion, incident response, insurance, child safety, safeguarding and legal compliance.

Members and participants are encouraged to keep their personal information accurate and up to date.

Privacy questions or concerns can be directed to Little Athletics SA in the first instance at:

> Little Athletics SA privacy contact: Steve Baldas, Chief Executive Officer, 08 8352 8133.

For further information, please refer to the Australian Athletics Privacy Policy.
